FOR

Designing & Piloting of Sandwiched Insulated Panel: Alternative Material for Brick Walls

This Memorandum of Understanding is made on .....<sup>1st</sup>.....September, 2015 between International Green Developers Nepal Pvt. Ltd. (hereinafter called "IGDN") and Institute of Engineering, Department of Mechanical Engineering, Nepal (hereinafter called "IOE/DOM") for a year from the date of execution to fulfill the mutual objectives as set forth below.

Objectives

To involve IOE/DOM and their students (hereinafter called "Department") in research activity of designing & piloting of sandwiched insulated panel of interest of IGDN.

The project contemplated by this Agreement is of mutual benefit to IOE/DOM and IGDN, will further the instructional objectives of IOE/DOM in a manner consistent with its status as a state supported institution, and should derive benefits for both IGDN and IOE/DOM.

• Responsibilities

- ✓ IOE/DOM: The Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor, (hereinafter called Faculty) assigned by IOE/DOM to work with IGDN to develop and implement a research.

The faculty shall assign one or more student(s) to a research activity and assist the student in the development of the results. The faculty shall assist in facilitating the signature of each student on the attached Student Agreement Form and will supply IGDN with a copy of the final report.

- ✓ IGDN: The IGDN shall assign officers to work with the faculty to develop, implement and provide technical assistance as needed.

The IGDN shall provide input to faculty and students that will improve the research work and help in the education of the student. For the final decision of student's research activities and defense of dissertation(s), faculty of IOE/DOM will consult with the IGDN officer and IOE/DOM will invite to IGDN officer in the meeting of Research and Development Committee.

- ✓ Where applicable, the IGDN shall provide financial support for student expenses that may be accrued. All such expenses shall be pre-approved by IGDN and paid directly to the student(s).

• Reports and Deliverables

- ✓ Where not prohibited by previous agreement with Student, the faculty shall furnish IGDN the final research report ("Deliverables"). These Deliverables shall be the non-exclusive property of the IGDN to duplicate and/or use the same in the IGDN's normal business operations, which includes but not limited to, using material in reports, to design and build equipment for use by IGDN, or any subsidiary of IGDN, provided however, that any Deliverable protected under patents or copyright laws shall be subject to Intellectual Property section below, but IGDN shall not sell, license or allow anyone else to use the results of these reports.
- ✓ The format and content of all Deliverables shall be at the sole discretion of IOE/DOM and IOE/DOM shall not be obligated to provide any Deliverable in addition to or different than that used IOE/DOM for its own purpose. IOE/DOM makes warranty as to completeness, accuracy, efficacy, or safety of any material or information given in Deliverables.

• Publications

- ✓ Publication of research findings and results is of fundamental importance to IOE/DOM, faculty members and their teaching programs. IOE/DOM must, therefore, permit publication of design teaching methods and results in recognized journals. A copy of all such publications will be sent to the IGDN thirty days for review and comment.

• Intellectual Properties

- ✓ It is understood that the principal product anticipated from this experience will be the Final Reports discussed in the Reports and Deliverables section of this Memorandum of Understanding. If any Final Reports contain any patentable invention, IOE/DOM shall grant to the IGDN a non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use any such patentable invention.

• Completion

- ✓ It is understood that IOE/DOM will use its best effort to complete the research within the time period, but because this course involves undergraduate and/or graduate students, IOE/DOM does not make any warranty nor does it guarantee completion of the projects.
